

Fleur Heazlewood (Sydney)

Fleur Heazlewood is a dynamic business professional who has experienced considerable success with coaching and mentoring whilst holding senior roles in leading Australian businesses. Fleur's expertise incorporates leadership and general management, strategy development and planning, change structuring and management, and people development and performance.

Fleur's experience has been gained across diverse industries, including Fast Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG), apparel, and home furnishings, within well-respected companies including the Charles Parsons Group (Rapee), Pacific Brands (Bonds), Cerebos Foods, Reckitt Benckiser and Frito-Lay.

Fleur has worked within global, regional and local structures for both multinational corporations and family companies managing large and diverse teams of up to 120 people. In addition to her solid general management experience Fleur's functional expertise includes sales, trade marketing and marketing.

Fleur has a Bachelor of Commerce degree (University of Melbourne), a Graduate Diploma in Marketing (University of Technology Sydney), a Graduate Diploma from the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD), and will complete a Masters in Coaching Psychology in 2010 (University of Sydney).

She is a member of the AICD and also the University of Sydney Coaching and Mentoring Association (USCMA).